I dedicate this CD to my Parents and my Family for all their years of love and support. To my mentors, who instilled a standard of excellence that I live by to this day, from Teddy Ludwig, to Lenny McDaniel, Wayne Cochran And The C.C. Riders (once a Rider always a Rider), especially Artie Goleniak, Mike Katz, T. Don Capron, Mike Palmieri, Bob Gable, Skip Weisser, Saundra Johnson and most of all Charles Brent. They live in everything I do and the music on this CD is a direct result of their influence on me. I am eternally grateful.

A huge thanks to Modified Cha Cha Executive Producer, Jerome Cruitt, whose faith and commitment made all of this possible. To my new musical soul mate, Chuck Archard, for embracing my musical legacy and vision to create some world class music. To our sound guru, Misha Kachkachishvili from Esplanade Studios, who raised the quality of our music to another level.

A special thanks to all the musicians who performed on this CD and to Janet Lynn, Mark Campbell, Nigel Hall, Cyril Neville, Rueben Williams, Marc Adams, Jeff Sturges Sr. and Phil Magallanes for making things happen. Thanks to my friends Peter Erskine, Randy Emerick, Luther Kent, Harry Hann, Cleve Warren, Tubby Ziegler and Danny Gottlieb, your support is invaluable. A heartfelt thank you to Katherine Rader, for keeping me grounded with her patience, love and support during this whole process.

This music is in remembrance of David Lee Watson, Charles Brent, Buzz Troy, Bob Braun, Brian O’Neill, Jaco Pastorius and Red Rodney.

— Allyn Robinson

This record is a celebration of Allyn’s rich musical history and a stirring tribute to Jaco Pastorius, Charles Brent and Wayne Cochran. On this record, Allyn brings together a 16-piece R&B big band and takes the listener on musical journey across the threshold where jazz intersects with soul, funk and rhythm & blues. From the opening track, Amelia, the first studio recording of a Jaco composition originally written and performed live with Allyn and the Cochran band in ‘73, to the Three Views of A Secret inspired, The Final View, this record is....A Dream Realized!
